MUCH WORSE.

General Grant Suffers the First Serious

Relapse at Mt. McGregor

Last Night.

His Throat Pills Up and the Physician and Family Feel Much

Alarm.

General Grant To-Day.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

Mr. McGraw, N. Y., June 27.—Although he dozed after retiring, General Grant did not sleep soundly until after midnight last night. The physician attended him once during the night and again at 6 o'clock in the morning. At 11 o'clock the general was awake but had not dressed. Since retiring he had slept six hours. During the past twenty-four hours the mucous secretions have increased and the expectoration, which has a tendency to weaken the patient, has been greater. His pulse is seventy-two but its fullness has been affected to some extent by the increased secretions and expectorations. A message of much sympathy was received from the republican central club of Pottsville, Pa., this morning.

The apprehensions of Dr. Douglas that General Grant might have to pay for his recent rally have already been partly met, the general having had a bad night. The mucous accumulations began to gather after midnight and he was scarcely free from coughing and unusual pain till day light. Dr. Douglas relieved him for a little while by treatment administered at 3 o'clock this morning and again at 6 o'clock, but his sleep was badly broken until after his morning nourishment was served, which quieted him.

He has been awake since 10 o'clock, but is much weaker than yesterday and too languid to care to leave his room.

No special alarm is felt by this set back and the family think the sultry day is an important agent in depressing him, and are not yet discouraged to think a reaction has set in. He will be watched with extra care.

The Western Men Revolt.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

CINCINNATI, June 27.—The conference of the iron manufacturers from Youngstown and other points west of Pittsburg adopted a resolution, declaring the action of the Pittsburg committee in the settlement of the recent difference between the manufacturers and workmen as ill-timed, unsatisfactory and subversive of their interests, and protesting against a continuance of Pittsburg dictation. They agreed to encourage the formation of an independent organization for the purpose of adjustment of their differences. They adjourned, subject to a call by the chairman, Joseph Kinney, of Cincinnati.

A Schoolman Assaulted.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

WATERLOO, Iowa, June 27.—Miss Shaffer, a seventeen-year-old school teacher at Clarksville, recently incurred the enmity of a family named Forney. Thursday evening, returning from school, she was met by Mrs. Forney and daughter.

The mother caught Miss Shaffer and held her while the daughter beat her over the head and shoulders with a rawhide. Mrs. Forney and daughter have been arrested. The physicians who examined Miss Shaffer pronounced her bruised and back in a fearful condition.

PITTSBURGH, June 27.—The exodus of Chinamen from California to the east man" is down on them in California and those in the east received fair treatment.

been convicted of the murder of Lucy

Kentucky Desperados.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

LOUISVILLE, June 26.—A gentleman just returned from the mountains of eastern Kentucky, and says and says a most alarming condition of affairs exists in that section of the state. No less than four armed bands are hunting each other like wild beasts over the mountains. Last week Telt Hall, a desperado, and one of his followers, named Johnson, shot and killed Frank Sawyer in his own doorway, because he objected to Hall's intimacy with his (Sawyer's) wife. At the coroner's inquest the following day, Hall, the mur-derer, took exception to the selection of Claiborne Jones, as a jurymen.

Jones resented this and the two got their friends and fought on open field.

Two of the Hall crowd were killed and several wounded.

Civil Engineers.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

DEER PARK, Md., June 26.—At the convention of the civil engineers Captain O. A. Michaelis, of the United States ordnance corps, read an interesting paper, entitled, "Can we make heavy guns." Mr. Charles Latimer, of the New York, Pennsylvania &

Ohio railroad, read a paper on railroad organizations. Other papers were presented by Prof. S. W. Robinson, of the Ohio State university, on vibration of bridges; by William P. Shann, on the power of brakes; by J. H.

Johnston, of Lima, Peru, on the strength of columns; by H. A. Dubois, on Peggam's paper formula for weights of iron and steel railway bridges; by R. E. McGrath, on the levee theory, tested by facts. The further reading of papers was dispensed with. The convention then passed a resolution of thanks to the Baltimore & Ohio railway company for the many kindnesses and courtesies extended and to the citizens of Baltimore for the hospitality extended. The convention then adjoined sine die. A banquet was held in the evening.

Labor Troubles.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

BELLINGHAM, O., June 26.—Yesterday the Bellingham Iron and Steel company held a conference with the striking employees of the steel works. One hundred and twenty-five workmen, not members of the Amalgamated association, agreed to resume work and let four objectionable employees be discharged. Seventy-five employees belong to the Amalgamation and they refused to go back to work unless the four men were reinstated or given a fair trial by an impartial committee and to-day posted a notice that the works would resume next Monday with non-union men, and asked any willing to work to apply for jobs.

The steel plant has been idle since April on account of the discharge of four men for drunkenness and incompetency. The company has already signed the United Nations' scale and the mill factory will resume as soon as the steel works are in operation.

A SECRET CONFERENCE.

CINCINNATI, June 26.—A secret conference has been going on this afternoon between a delegation of the iron mill men from Youngstown, O., and the iron mill owners of Cincinnati and this vicinity. The object of the meeting has not been divulged. The session will be continued to-morrow.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

LOUISVILLE, June 26.—The boiler at the distillery of Mortling & Moore, at Bradstown, exploded this morning, at 11 o'clock. Three of the work hands were killed instantly and another so badly injured and bruised that it is thought he will die. The killed are

Chas. M. Cates, Chas. Palding, Mason

Bard. The wounded man is named Benis Allen. All were colored. The scene at the distillery was horrible.

Mattling and Moore's loss is great,

The baths of the railroad reading rooms are a luxury to the railroad boys in this hot weather. They appreciate them, having taken 500 baths so far this month. When we consider that a weekly bath costs but 25 cents a month, or about 6 cents a bath, it is a wonder that every railroad man does not become a member for this privilege alone, but when, without extra cost added, the use of the reading and amusement rooms and circulating library, which will very soon be opened. The Telephone Rates. Supt. H. H. Matlock, of this district exchange, is at home from Chicago, where a consultation was held yesterday in regard to the law fixing telephone rentals at $3 per month. The company proposes to conform to the law in the prices of rental, and to make charges for other material and for its service. A charge of $20 a year will be made for the rental of the instrument proper, in a business house, but $25 will be added to this amount for other material and service, making the total charge the same as that of last year. But should a member of a firm or any employee, having an instrument in their place of business, desire a telephone at his residence, the same will be furnished for $30 per year. This is a reduction of $5 per annum. For private residences $16 a year will be charged for rental, with an addition of $20 for service, making the total amount reach just the limit prescribed by law. The company is out in a circular explaining thoroughly and satisfactorily why it is impossible to maintain the telephone business at the rates fixed by law and their agents are soliciting business at the old rates.

About $2,000 Short. The saunterest management find that the receipts of their entertainments are $2,000 less than their expenses. The payments to the stars of the fast, boarding and entertaining the visitors, not to mention high rent, printing, and the thousand and one things that necessarily follow an entertainment, count up in big figures. The management included men successful in every walk in life, and to keep some on their heads does not appear just. The financial failure of the saunterest can be attributed to hard times, an overdone excursion business to Chicago, and surrounding resorts. An assessment of 40 per cent. on the guarantee fund will probably be made.

Move Them to Fort Wayne. The Peru Sentinel, in a half column of wild denunciation of the management of the Wabash road, makes the following flimsy break: "The old railroad, which for years bore the same name, is likewise succumbing to the combined efforts of time and bad management, and the wren makes her nest in the grass between the ties, and the ground squirrel whisks gleefully along the rusty rails, while the plover, from his eyrie on the leading telegraph pole, breaks the dense solitude of the right of way with its plain notes, so strange and yet so familiar to those who have camped in the wild woods. The scene calls for the wildest admiration from those who love to commune with nature where yet she thrives in all her pristine vigor and purity, undefined by the ruthless hand of man, or the rushing, hurrying tornado of western progress." Now if General Manager Talmage doesn't move the shops of the line to Fort Wayne, and make Peru a flag station he is a creature "whom 'twere base flattery to call a man."

There will be a general praise service at Simpson M. E. church to-morrow and thanks to God for temporal and spiritual blessings in the last few weeks. There will be a brief sermon by the pastor at 10:30 a. m., and a poem read by a young lady, "In Memoriam of Bishop Matthew Simpson." The services will close with a brief social meeting of thirty minutes, all to be through by 12 m. Sabbath school at 2:30 p. m. Preaching in the evening at 7:45 by Elder J. P. Nash, of Monroeville.

WARRING SPIRITS.

A Hidden Treasure Causes a Row in the Spiritualistic Fold.

There is quite a devoted band of spiritualists in Fort Wayne and they regularly hold their seances in dark parlors and dimly lighted rooms. At one of these sittings, a short time ago, a revelation was made, and the select circle gleaned from the friendly spirit that J. A. Walter, at 19 West Berry street, made the best and finest boots and shoes in the city and done the work as cheap as the higher priced concerns. Our reporter visited his shop this morning and found crowded with work, and he informed us that people could gain further information regarding the above by calling on him.

For the "Fourth of July," the Wabash will sell tickets to points within one hundred and fifty miles at one fare for the round trip. Tickets will be sold July 31 and 1st, good to return until July 6th. 19-11

War Declared!

Notwithstanding the apparent clearing up of the war cloud now hanging over England and Russia, I am still at war with high prices, just as I have been from the organization of my business.
